

Statement on Inclusion

For in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith. As many of you as were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. There is no longer Jew or Gentile, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male or female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus. – Galatians 3:26-28

The congregation of South Frankfort Presbyterian Church affirms the worth and dignity of all people. We are all created in God's image, and in Christ we are the children of God. Just as Jesus welcomed everyone into his fellowship, we welcome all people to our congregation regardless of skin color, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, physical or mental ability, income or political beliefs. All are welcome to worship, serve, and participate fully in the life and ministry of South Frankfort Presbyterian Church; and all who profess faith in Jesus Christ are welcome to become members of South Frankfort Presbyterian Church with eligibility for its leadership and offices.

We at South Frankfort Presbyterian Church embrace our diversity in all its forms and celebrate our unity as the body of Christ. In the spirit of this statement, we at South Frankfort Presbyterian Church are committed to providing a safe place for all to explore Christian faith through prayerful and considered study of scripture and church history, and to deepen our relationships with one another and with Jesus Christ.

Living out our Christian calling, we welcome the presence, gifts, and companionship of all on the journey of faith as we seek to become a living testimony to God's love, grace and mercy.
